

Fair Count

Job Opening: Georgia Based Voter Education Organizer for the January 5, 2021 Runoff

Fair Count seeks Voter Education Organizers to execute both on-the-ground, social distanced in-person GOTV strategies in targeted, rural communities as well as remote digital projects. The GOTV Organizer will work closely with and under the direction of the Field Coordinator and other key programming staff to deploy the vision of the team. GOTV Organizers will represent Fair Count on the ground as well as through digital channels in targeted areas throughout the state. In-person field work is key to this position and will be done while adhering to science-based social distancing best practices.

Fair Count is a 501(c)(3), nonprofit, non-partisan organization. We believe democracy is stronger when all people participate. We particularly focus on voter education with communities of color and new registrants in areas outside of the metro-Atlanta area.

Duties of the Field Organizer include:

- Executing GOTV campaigns, often in the field, while maintaining social distancing best practices;
- Participating in and/or managing phonebanks, textbanks and/or canvass launches in turf;
- Maintaining updated and accurate contact databases of community leaders and organizations
- Communicating resource needs for community-based stakeholder organizations
- Working with the larger Fair Count team to develop a deployment strategy of PPE, literature, food distribution and more in specific communities;
- Coordinating community leader and organization involvement in appropriate special events and capacity building activities in turf;
- Successfully completing phone, text and canvassing daily goals;
- Staffing outreach events associated with community-based organizations and working closely with partners to ensure successful execution of each event;
- Representing Fair Count in targeted, rural communities via presentations and meetings;
- Deploying various digital organizing and relational organizing tools in targeted areas; and
- Performing other duties or special projects as needed

Desired Qualifications and Skills

- Minimum of 1 year of experience in community-based organizing, rural organizing experience a plus;
- Located outside of the metro-Atlanta area is a plus;

- Excellent written and verbal communications skills;
- Exceptional people skills and patience;
- Responsive and positive team player who enjoys versatility and constant new challenges;
- Proficient in Votebuilder, MiniVan, Microsoft Word, Excel, Google Docs, and database management tools, Hustle and Spoke a plus; and
- A strong commitment to Fair Count's values.

Logistics:

- Must have a valid driver's license, a reliable mode of transportation and the ability to travel extensively at times throughout the state, possibly for more than a day at a time;
- Applicants permanent residence must be in Georgia;
- Organizing hours will regularly include nights and weekends, and that will be especially true closer to Runoff Election Day.
- Currently, the position is temporary, through the end of January 2021.

Salary & Benefits:

The salary is $3,500 a month.

Application and Interview Procedure:

To apply, e-mail a cover letter, your resume, and a list of references to Jeanine Abrams McLean at Jeanine@FairCount.org and Adam Drucker at Adam@FairCount.org. Please do not contact by phone.

To deliver on our mission, Fair Count hires and supports a diverse team of the best and brightest, most mission- driven people available. We value diversity. We welcome applications from candidates from all backgrounds and walks of life, and work hard to create an environment where everyone on our team feels included, involved in key decisions that affect them, and encouraged to bring their full selves to work.